++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Bright spells and scattered showers, rain later in east.

Today:
Some bright or sunny intervals and scattered showers, these most frequent in the west. Showers turning briefly heavy, perhaps merging into longer outbreaks of rain across the Borders, Fife and Aberdeen later in the day.

Tonight:
Any rain in the east will clear away and cloud will thin and break with plenty of clear spells, especially for central areas, a few showers further west, chilly inland.

Wednesday:
Mainly dry and bright on Wednesday, although heavy rain possible at first in Shetland and a few showers in the west at times. Clouding over in the west later.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
An unsettled end to the week with rain and strong winds early on Thursday morning. Remaining windy on Friday and Saturday with showery outbreaks of rain expected.
